Cross-Country

Cross Country is continuing to grow at Colborne. With a fall and spring schedule of over ten meets throughout the county we find ourselves traveling a great deal. Although winning is a satisfying reward, the chance of meeting and talking to new people and keeping our bodies in good physical condition is hopefully of greater importance. Colborne runners will finish off their running year by hosting their second annual cross country meet.

GRADE THREES
The third row houses little Kim Earley,
Who unlike Tim, is not very squirrelly.
John Waters is found sitting behind her,
He's also known as John the Tiger!
After John is Amy Hoy,
Who's greatest joy is to annoy — the teacher.
Deanna Talbot is last in the row,
Is she smart? We still don't know.

Eddy Lenting heads this row,
We all think him a pretty good Joe.
After him is Kelly Campbell,
We all think she's really swell.
After that is Routley, Kevin,
Do you suppose he'll get to heaven,
Next to him sits Christine Pawitch.
Who always appears to have an itch.
After that sits Valerie Wilson,
Who always had a lot of fun.
And last in the row is Randy Woodiwiss,
Who's favourite time is known as recess.

Paul Agar heads the fifth row,
He's at school in rain or snow.
Second in line sits David Guest,
Who never ever is a pest.
Lisa Bloomfield's next in line,
Her classmates think her mighty fine.
Tracy Griffiths is after that,
She keeps her brains inside her hat.
Next to her is Larry King,
He falls asleep when we all sing.
And last in the class is Jennifer Hyatt,
She always seems to cause a riot.

GRADE FOURS
Amit Shah is first in the row,
If something's wrong, he'll let you know.
Next to him is Brenda Paul
Who's not very big and not very tall.
After Brenda is Tim Earley,
Some people say he's a little squirrelly.
Sarah Waters is after that,
She's not too thin and not too fat!
Last in line is Beth Featherstone,
Who never tries to be alone.

The second row features John Statham,
Who chases girls and makes them scram.
Ellen Rundle sits next to him,
She has a ball when in the gym.
Kathy George is next in line,
Her favourite time is when she dines.
Heather McGuire sits behind Kathy,
Her sisters think her a little daffy.
Stephen Postma loves the stars,
Perhaps one day soon, he'll live on Mars.

Back Row: Paul Agar, Amit Shah, Stephen Postma, Larry King, Tim Earley, Randy Woodiwiss, Kevin Routley. # Room 10

One of our major assignments this year was completing projects about dogs in connection with a series of literature stories about a Scotch collie and Bridgette, a basset hound. Not only did we learn much from our research but Mrs. Boshart demonstrated with Dee Dee ways of grooming dogs for shows and how to care for pet dogs correctly. Our finished projects presented an attractive display and we felt proud of our work when the Strathroy Jaycees rewarded each of us with a certificate for our contributions to Education Week.

I Remember

I remember when Brent Lingard tried to strangle Mary McEwen. I remember when Mr. Duncan was so worried that the classroom would be plastered with paper-mache, and it was! I remember when Helen Wilding had a funeral for the dead fish. I remember when Dawn Longfield was pretending to be a teacher but broke Mr. Duncan's chair. I remember when Bob Ledingham greased his hair back and put Mr. Duncan's glasses on just for a picture. I remember when the class was watching a film on archaeologists and Wayne Emmons fell asleep in his desk. I remember when a couple of students went to clean the fish tank but lost the snail somewhere between the room and the drain. I remember when we went to Ste. Marie and the Martyr's Shrine. I wish that we could remember this much when it comes to writing tests.
